

JOB ALERT UPDATE

Immediate opening → Senior Architect/ Sunnyvale, CA – Strong leadership skills to coordinate a full-service design team on complex industrial and technology projects from inception through construction documents. Work with in-house professionals including architects, mechanical and electrical engineers and construction managers. This is a hands-on role where you will do your own CAD drafting.

Projects are in the aerospace, biotech, science and technology and university markets requiring innovative design solutions for research, testing, manufacturing and production facilities.

10-15 years Architectural Project Management experience

BA or BArch

California Licensed Architect

LEED accreditation highly recommended

Strong production skills using AutoCAD

Prefer experience with Autodesk Revit 2014

Strong skills with MS Word, Excel, Access and Project

Knowledge of current Title 24, UBC and local Building and Fire Codes is essential

Must have experience with Labs, Clean Rooms and Industrial projects

Strong communications skills required to coordinate work between in-house design team members

Strong presentation and teaming skills to coordinate with client management and end-user representatives

U.S. Citizenship or Permanent Residency mandatory due to client requirements

* Local candidates, no relocation

Submitting your resume: If you meet the requirements and you are interested in the opportunity, please email your resume in a Word Doc with the job title in the subject line to: donna@affinitypeoplesolutions.com

Paying it Forward: Feel free to forward to this link to anyone that you think might be interested:
http://www.affinitypeoplesolutions.com/Open_Requisitions.pdf
